- The ultimate aim of this project was to clean up the stretch by removing as much as plastic and other waste as possible.
- Therefore raising awareness of the irreversible damage caused by marine pollution

- This project was planned few months before the day of project, but it was getting postponed again and again because of the heavy rains in mumbai.
- The project was initiated by Rajani Foundation in collaboration with United for Greater Cause 'UFGC', Rotaract Club of Saraswati College, RID 3142 collaborated with them for this project.
- Then finally Rajani Foundation and official sponsors decided this date for the project as 8th Sept.
- WhatsApp PR text was sent before the event reminding everyone of the project.
- A score of PR messages was circulated in the district avenue groups as well as beyond for the promotion of the project.
- WhatsApp group was formed before two days of the project for the people who all were coming for the project for the proper communication and to get updates from everyone.
- Packaged drinking water and snacks were arranged by RC Saraswati for the participants a day before the project.
- A proper informative text related to venue, time, etc was sent to everyone personally as well as in chat group a day before the project.

- The project began from 6:30 AM on 8th September at the Juhu Beach.
- There were students from various schools, colleges, NSS units and other organizations.
- 1000+ students were there for the drive.
- Using gloves, face masks, buckets and some hand tools, volunteers have focused on cleaning the sea shore.
- There were a lot of plastic materials which was cleaned up during the drive.
- We also found numerous Lord Ganesha idols at the shore.
- Ambulance and Brihamumbai Municipal Corporation (BMC) garbage trucks were already arranged.
- In the end, everyone took the Zero Waste Pledge.
- With a view of enhancement of this movement, we also pitched in the idea of clicking photographs with the club banners of the respective clubs.

Report on 'Blood Donation 2019'

Event Name: Blood Donation 2019
Event Date: 10 October 2019
Event Time: 8AM to 6 PM
Event Place: Saraswati College of Engineering, Kharghar

Purpose: To conduct Blood Donation Camp for Working Summary:

The NSS unit of Saraswati College of Engineering, Kharghar conducted Blood Donation Camp on the 10th of October, 2019. This was in collaboration with K.E.M Hospital, and student association of Mechanical Department and Information Technology Department of the college. The event was commenced by felicitating the Doctors and inaugurating the drive by the Principal of the College, Dr. MANJUSHA DESHMUKH.

The doctor's were given the podium to share the details and instructions, on how to make the camp successful. The Do's and Don'ts during Pre and post blood donation as well as importance of donating for first time were briefed by the Doctors. The volunteers were divided into five groups, so that the whole camp goes smoothly.

The groups were divided into

- One were they check weight and helped people to fill the forms, so that minor errors can be avoided.
- Followed by haemoglobin check up, by K.E.M nurses. This is the first test, where it's checked whether the person is capable of donating or not.
- Once the donor passes haemoglobin test, their blood pressure is checked, and during this the BP isn't normal, the person is advised to have food and comeback later. And for ones who's BP is normal they're asked a few questions, on the basis of which they're allowed to donate blood

- D) The donors are then taken by our volunteers to waiting room for donating blood. The whole blood donation process is about 15 to 20 mins. For every donor, 2-3 volunteers were assigned to take care of them.
- E) Once done with the process of donating blood, the volunteers take them to resting room, where refreshments are supplied and let them rest. By the time they take adequate amount of rest, the volunteers prepare their certificates.

The whole process went in loop for 9 hours. The team of doctors and volunteers were in, their toes in this whole camp. Each and every one was enthusiastic without and sort of breaks.

The liveliness of faculty and commitment of students were the sparkle to the event. Maximum donors were around the age group of 18-21, the debut donors were timid while donating, but the Doctors and volunteers calmly handled them.

The whole event was monitored by the Program Officers, Dr. Sunita Pal and Prof Keval Patil. It was an eight hour long event, and a success. The unit could collect 218 blood bags with only one donation centre, making it a new benchmark for future volunteers.

The event was concluded by handing certificate of appreciation to every doctors and nurses by the faculties.
