DANCE COMPETITION

As a type of social dance, group dances are choreographed simultaneous dances designed to be performed in groups of three or more. Choreographed group dancing is a popular folk dance style in many countries and cultures. There are many different types of group dancing, including square dancing, line dancing, and maypole dancing. The Macarena, the Bunny Hop, and the Time Warp are all examples of group dances that have become popular.

A solo dance is a dance done by an individual dancing alone, as opposed to couples dancing together but independently of others dancing at the same time, if any, and as opposed to groups of people dancing simultaneously in a coordinated manner. Solo dancers are usually the best dancers in a group or dance Colleges.

CHESS TOURNAMENT

Every year SCOE arranged Chess competition for students. Chess is an abstract strategy game and involves no hidden information. It is played on a square chessboard with 64 squares arranged in an eight-by-eight grid. At the start, each player (one controlling the white pieces, the other controlling the black pieces) controls sixteen pieces: one king, one queen, two rooks, two knights, two bishops, and eight pawns. The object of the game is to checkmate the opponent's king, whereby the king is under immediate attack (in "check") and there is no way for it to escape. There are also several ways a game can end in a draw.

Chess: - Straight Knockout Competition. - Toss will be done to choose who starts first & the one who loses the toss will get to choose Black or White. - Format - Standard Blitz 5 mins each. - Once your timer ends, you'll lose. - No intentional draws are allowed. - In the case of a Technical Draw, the rematch will be done.

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS :

- The names, details of all the participants of all competitions/ titles will be submitted beforehand by the departmental committees.
- Entire participation fees (as mentioned in the brochure) will be paid during registration along with forms. No token amounts accepted.
