Project Level Global

The recipe exchange was aimed for:

learning more about international delicacies. sharing various food recipes.

Rtr. Diksha Meena and Rtr. Palak Sharma proposed the idea to the core team and on approval, contacted Rtr. Arjun Khadka, President of Rotaract Club of Kathmandu North for a recipe exchange.

On proper discussions, both the clubs agreed to do recipe exchange.

As per the criteria, 5 recipes were decided and each club had to cook 1 recipe at least.

Rtr. Diksha and Rtr. Palak then decided on 5 recipes and made the recipe book for our club.

By the 6th of March, the recipe book was ready.

By the 8th of March, both the clubs exchanged the recipe books and decided to cook at least one recipe as per their convenience.

The Recipe Exchange was done between the Rotaract Club of Saraswati College and the Rotaract Club of Kathmandu North RID 3292.

Rotaract Club of Saraswati College cooked Momos and Phulaura.

Rotaract Club of Kathmandu North cooked Anda Bhurji and Masala Papad.

we were delighted to see the participation of our alumni Vishal Shah(job) Bhavesh Joshi(job) which made this cultural exchange more meaningful by guiding us and sharing their experience.
